DEMOCRATIC BANQUET AT HALEYBURG.

The banquet given by the Democracy of Raleigh and vicinity yesterday was attended by a large crowd, many of whom were ladies. Able and eloquent speeches were made by Hon. W. T. Avery and G. W. Jones, who were received with great enthusiasm. The address was most appropriate and elegant, and every thing passed with the greatest harmony and good feeling. We regret that it is impossible to present all the interesting and original and agreeable to all present. Still, should we have time to give a more detailed account of the proceedings.

MINISTER TO THE ARGENTINE CONFEDERATION.

The Hon. J. F. C. Morris, recently appointed Minister to the Argentine Confederation of South America, leaves this city for destination on Saturday morning. He will pass New York for Europe and will go to South America. It has been our fortune to know Judge Cushman personally and intimately for a number of years past, here and in Memphis, and he is well known to us all. His words are clear, intelligent, and excellent qualities of head and heart. We take it that the mission upon which he has entered is no small one, although of high grade, it is in express terms left to him to decide what they may be. But that they may very important questions between the two republics are to be decided. Still, should we have time to give an account of his discussion and action, we shall do our best to make it available to the general interest and honor of the United States.

WORKS OF PHILIP LINDBERG, M. D.

We have received from Messrs. J. L. and W. H. Johnson, publishers of the Medical and Physical Journal, Dr. Lindberg's Works of Philip Lindberg, D. D., late Professor of the University of Nashville. This volume contains the Educational Discourse of the learned and distinguished author. It is printed in clear, elegant type, and is bound in cloth covers, in a few months. The publishers are rendering a great service to the public at large, and to the literary world, in particular, in reproducing in an enlarged form, the works of the most eminent physicians of the day. Very able, learned, and most profound thinkers of the South, who have left impress of their mind and genius upon the history of Tennessee, the new work will be a valuable addition to the library of every one who has failed to secure them. The author has never failed to succeed in the various walks of life, and to become a remarkable member of society. A person of his scholarly discourses impresses us with the clear comprehension he has of the various subjects he treats. His writing, his clear and forcible expression, insight into the educational wants of our country, and his natural and masterly view of the scenes needed to place our State, and the South generally, on an elevated position, are unique. The various themes of President Lincoln's orations from his inauguration as President of Congress, at Nashville, January 12, 1861, are contained in this volume.

This volume is dedicated to the life and character of Prof. G. R. Tandy, and was delivered October 2, 1858. The profound wisdom, acute observation, and elevated sentiments of the author, apply especially to this volume, which is the most valuable work particularly to the reader, and to the general reader. It will be at the bookstores of Messrs. Clegg & Vines.

We will publish a monthly news-letter for the sale of a monthly news-letter, and for the same reason, and the thoughtful consideration of our readers.

The question is treated with a reverence to original principles that is most refreshing in a day when every man seems to be a self-styled prophet.

The subject of the rights of the Territories is handled with masterly ability, which causes to make it a deep impression upon the public mind. The author's style is forcible and forcible.

MENONIUS OF THE REV. G. P.

We deeply regret to learn that the Rev. Mr. Schley has resigned the pastorate of Grace Church. The following resolutions, passed by the vestry of Grace Church, may justly be considered:

WATERS. Our beloved Doctor, Rev. G. P. Schley, has tendered to this vestry his resignation, through his having been so seriously ill, and has been reluctantly and reluctantly filled.

The question is treated with a reverence to original principles that is most refreshing in a day when every man seems to be a self-styled prophet.
